The Inauguration.

The Abbeville Rifles are considering the question of attending Cleveland's Inauguration. Doubtless very low rates could be obtained, of transportation and board. The Rifles are compelled to obtain the new State uniform before their next inspection. And with a little extra work and assistance they could get ready for the Inauguration ceremonies. We are sure our people will help them. The ladies always do. It will require forty men in ranks to do the company credit. Will they join and drill and go. If so let the company set to work at once to make its arrangements.

Wedding Party.

Our genial and handsome young friend Mr. Jas. I. Fair, of Newberry, was married on Tuesday the 25th to Miss Lizzie Roundtree, of Barnwell. On Thursday we met the happy group with their charming and pretty bride, on their way home, accompanied by General and Mrs. Pop & Mr. Willie Ewart.

They have many friends to wish them joy and happiness, but none will do so more sincerely than we.

Marriage.

Hon. W. P. Wideman was married yesterday at 10 o'clock a.m. at Gastonia, N. C., to Miss Rebecca A. Boyce, by Rev. Dr. H. T. Sloan. Mr. Wideman passed through Abbeville, en route to Gastonia, and already his handsome face was wreathed in smiles in anticipation of the happiness coming to him. Surely his warm heart and generous nature entitle him to a full measure of happiness in this life, and he has certainly taken the important step necessary to attain the highest bliss.

The MESSENGER sends its most kindly greetings to our friend and welcomes his bride to Abbeville county.

A School Commissioner in a Hot Place.

Mr. George C. Hodges spent Monday night at the Commercial Hotel and after retiring he heard a crackling noise over his head which proved to be the burning of the ceiling. The stove pipe ran up straight through the ceiling and the laths caught fire therefrom. The alarm was quickly raised, and George Shillito with several others, went up on top of the house and put out the fire. It is said that George has laid the foundation of a good tinning job.

A Negro Shot.

On Monday evening about dark, a negro by the name of Cy Alston, well known as a banjo picker, was shot by some person unknown. It seems that Cy got into a difficulty with Mr. James Gilliam, and while this was in progress, some one from the crowd of bystanders shot off a pistol, the ball taking effect in Cy's back. He is not thought to have been seriously shot, and in all probability will soon recover.

He came up to invest in some of the Laurens Land and succeeded in getting one of the most valuable tracts, at a very reasonable rate. A Place of Beauty.

The ladies' furnishing store of R. M. Haddon & Co. offers unusual attractions to all persons attending Court, who desire to present their wives and daughters with the latest styles in hats, dresses, Cloaks, circulars, &c.

Wholesale dealer in Corn, Flour, Meal, Meat, Hams, Lard, Bran, Salt, Molasses, Sugar, Coffee, Rice, Soap, &c., will deliver goods at any point on railroad at Abbeville prices. Goods are always ready for sale, as we have advantages that few up-country merchants have.

White Brothers have now stored more than one hundred cases of Boots and Shoes. They sell Zeigler's Ladies' Shoes, which are unsurpassed for fit, style and durability. They also have a large lot of Men's and Boys' Shoes, made by the Bay State Shoe and Leather Company. Their goods have been tested for several years and have given universal satisfaction. Any one who buys a pair of this make of Boots or shoes, always gets the worth of his money.

We have heard some complaint of delay in the delivery and transmission of telegrams at this place. We trust there will be no future complaint, or an investigation into the cause thereof will be in order.

Col. Henry Buist, largely interested in the Laurens Land property, was in town attending the sale, guest of Judge Cothran. Col. Buist is a prominent lawyer of Charleston and has been active in the councils of the State.

The real estate of Rev. J. L. Martin was offered for sale on Monday last. Maj. A. B. Wardlaw bought 95 acres of woodland about two miles from town. The balance of the property was bid in for Mr. Martin, the prices not warranting a sale.

Every tax-payer should read the report of our excellent Board of County Commissioners, so as to see where the funds of the County go. The report was neatly written up and reflects credit upon their efficient Clerk, J. C. Klugh, Esq.

A rule has been served on J. T. Nix, Esq., of Greenville, to show cause why he should not be disbarred from practicing as an attorney. He has made his return, and after hearing argument, Judge Aldrich took the papers and reserved his decision.

There were several of the sturdy farmers of Newberry present at the sale of the Laurens lands on Monday and bid well up. It is gratifying to see this evidence of the appreciation of Abbeville lands on the part of our neighbors.

We have seen the call issued by many of the most prominent members of the Bar of the State for a meeting to form a Bar Association, which meeting convenes in Columbia on 11th December. This Bar will hold a meeting to send delegates to the next inspection.

It is perfectly awful that passengers should be compelled to get out of the cars at our depot in mud and water. It would be an easy matter to extend the platform fifty feet further, or else there ought to be a side track laid. The present arrangement seems to us easy of remedy.
